HEATHER RICE

Springing Forward

So now it's March! The quiet time that we enjoyed in January and February gives way to renewed and welcome activity. The first Sunday of Lent was March 1st — St. David's Day — and some of us marked the day with the rich harmonies of Welsh hymns. There are four events scheduled in March: our Student Recital, an intriguing workshop on Bach's language of music, math and myth by Jan Kraybill, the Pro Organo Recital by Jan Kraybill, and the Benefit Recital to support the Pro Organo Series given by Matthew Larkin and Rachel Laurin. Details of these events are in this newsletter. Lent is a time to give things up but also to take them on. Please 'take on' and enjoy all of these March events! We're also looking forward to the Great Bach Marathon on May 2nd.

As always we need your support and presence. Audrey Foster, one of Rideau Park United Church's first organist/choir directors always called a missing choir member after rehearsal. She told them 'You are part of the choir and it is just not the same if you are not at rehearsal.'

If you have ideas for events, things you would like to see or happen in the Ottawa Centre please email me at gowans978@gmail.com.

The Ottawa Centre has lost 2 friends since our last newsletter - Ted Devey and Bill Vineer. We give thanks for their participation and contribution to the RCCO Ottawa Centre. Bill founded of the Vineer Organ Library.

Weather in Ottawa is unpredictable at this time of year. Unexpected snow showers and forecasts of snow storms can affect our plans. I leave you with a children's poem that makes my choirs smile -

*Whether the weather be fine
Or whether the weather be not,
Whether the weather be cold
Or whether the weather be hot,
We'll weather the weather
Whatever the weather,
Whether we like it or not.*

The Great Bach Marathon

Sondra Goldsmith Proctor

The Great Bach Marathon 4 is fast approaching on Saturday, May 2nd, 2020, from 1:00 – 6:00 p.m. at Woodroffe United Church. The young people are preparing their piano pieces and bringing their excitement to actually be able to construct an organ! Joshua Zentner-Barrett will lead two sessions for the young people as they learn what makes an organ work and how it fits together. The young people will be able to hear accomplished organist Rachel Lauren perform pieces written for the small organ that the children have just constructed. Letorneau Organ Builders built seven organ kits for the OrgelKidsCan project to introduce the organ to young people...and some of more advanced years.

Have you marked May 2 on your calendar? Have you volunteered to welcome our guests? Are you ready to support our young people and support those with more experience as they perform Johann Sebastian Bach to raise money for organ scholarships for beginning students? Do you have a work by Bach that you would love to share with the audience that assembles to support this project? Have you spoken to or written to Sondra Goldsmith Proctor to share what you can offer for the afternoon? Please take a moment to volunteer to share in this exciting, event filled afternoon.

Time passes so quickly when we are preparing to present Bach to the public. Don't wait another day before you volunteer to join in the grand music making. Contact Sondra Goldsmith Proctor by email at sondragoldsmithproctor@gmail.com or call 202.841.8712

Pro Organo

Karen Holmes

The next concert in the series will take place on MONDAY, March 16th at 7:30 p.m. at Église Saint-François-d'Assise, Wellington at Fairmont. The featured artist will be Dr. Jan Kraybill, from Kansas City, Missouri. Dr. Kraybill is a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists, and has served in many roles in the AGO, the Hymn Society and the Master Teacher Institute. Recently, she was Executive Director of the Hymn Society in the U.S. and Canada. She is a member of Mensa. Jan Kraybill is Organ Conservator at the Kauffman Center for the Performing Arts in Kansas City, and she plays and oversees the care of the three largest organs in the Kansas City area. She has performed several solo and collaborative CDs, and some of these will be for sale in March. Her latest CD, The Orchestral Organ, received a Grammy nomination for Best Classical Instrumental Solo album, and Best Immersive Album, as well as Producer of the Year!

Jan Kraybill's recital on March 16 is entitled "Voices in Community", and will feature works by Bach, Brahms, Schumann, Milos Sokola, Gustav Holst, Marcel Dupré and the jazz composer Dave Brubeck. Details of the program will appear soon on the Centre website. Dr. Kraybill will also present a workshop on Music, Math and Mythology in Bach's works - especially the ones on her March 16 program. The workshop will take place at Kanata United Church on Saturday, March 14, at 10 a.m.

Rev. Christine Piper

It's perhaps the smallest step of faith in the English language: Go! Go to that new post, perhaps across the province, the country, the ocean, the world! Or – and more likely – go across the city to play on that new (for you) organ bench! And then there are other perhaps less dramatic steps needing courage, hope, whatever it takes for you or your loved ones. Go to that medical test that is so invasive, go once again to that challenging volunteer activity you signed up for, go, yes, and insist that your phone will be turning off the internet access on your kid's phone at 10pm each day. So many calls to 'Go!'

Go! The smallest step of faith in the English language. But that does not make it simple! There is indeed ever that question as to whether, in the first place, we correctly discerned the call to 'Go!' Or of course we can correctly discern the call; and then, and before we know it, it's time to come back!

Not simple was surely the case for Abram in the Old Testament text for this coming second Sunday of Lent: Go from your country, your father's house to the land that I will show you (Gen 12: 1-4a). The call to go to the land that God would show him meant wrenching change in Abram's life. Loss of extended family and his home in Haran where they had all ended up on leaving Ur, the land of the Chaldeans. Loss of familiarity as he journeyed with his loved ones and livestock into new and unknown territories.

Changing positions, maybe going for the opportunity to play that more 'sexy' instrument can, we discover, mean the loss of a minister who at the end of the day was not 'so bad,' the loss of, yes, that appreciative congregation...

Even the apparently smaller calls to 'Go!' carry with them their own shadow side. The surgery that has been recommended for this treatable condition means, perhaps, months of waiting, months of recovery time. The invasive medical test can incur the need to find help to get there and come back. The firm stand with one's teen: hey, it would be less immediately trying to simply let them be on their phone all night!

God knows all this. And God named it for Abram so he could make an informed choice.

God truly loves us. God gave us the capacity to make free choices.

Go! Perhaps the smallest step of faith in the English language. But, hey, small does not necessarily mean simple.

Go! A not easy call for Lent?
